

Function and Event Listeners

Function is a block of code designed to program a particular task. Once the function is defined for a particular task we can use it multiple times without needing to define again and if we want to make changes then changing the main function will change every single one of them.

EventListener is a function in javascript that waits for an event to occur then responds to it. It allows to create custom responses to events like mouse clicks, keyboard clicks, and window resizing.