

Event Handling

It is a mechanism to control the events and to decide what should happen after an event occurs. Just like in the task assigned on Day-16 for form validation. We used form validation in our form on when to accept and reject. We passed certain conditions to be accepted. If the conditions were not met then it would pass the message set by developer on that particular event.